A stunning 18th century cobalt blue Porcelain de Chine urn mounted into a lamp. The urn, retaining remnants of the original gold design, is adorned with French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu mounts. The lamp is raised on a square base with concave corners decorated with rosettes and a laurel wreath. Each side of the urn are finely chased ormolu mounts of lion heads and foliate ribbons. At the top is a lattice designed lid with foliate border and ormolu fut with acanthus leaf designs. Silk pleated shade and all original gilt.
