A pair of exquisite 18th Century Famille Rose porcelain vases mounted into lamps with richly decorated French Louis XVI st. ormolu mounts. Each lamp is raised by a circular ormolu base with rounded supports decorated by acanthus leaves and flowers. Above the supports is a reeded design below a beaded trim. The vase with all original and vivid colors has a very decorative foliate design with a central bird. Above is the richly chased ormolu top rim with an acanthus leaf and floral design. The pleated silk shades are adjustable.
