A most elegant and high quality Italian mid 18th century Louis XV period walnut console. The freestanding console is raised by beautiful slender cabriole legs with hoof feet and charming finely detailed foliate carvings. The deep arabesque shaped frieze displays one central rectangular drawer with a bronze keyhole escutcheon and a fine mottled border centered by richly carved scrolled foliate movements. Each side also displays a single drawer decorated in the same manner above a lovely carved fillet and additional foliate designs. The top displays a lovely scalloped shape and showcases the warm wood grain with a fine mottled border.

Provenance: From the important Accorsi Pietro collection.
