A striking and high quality French 19th century Louis XVI st. Brèche d'Alep marble and ormolu fireplace mantel. The mantle is raised by fine block feet below elegant straight jambs. Each jamb is adorned with finely detailed ormolu mounts of tied berried laurel garlands and lovely richly chased cherubs holding their foliate garlands below an ormolu band with a fine palmette design. Above each jamb are striking foliate rosettes centering the arched apron with a beautiful intricately retailed tied berried laurel branch mount. Above is the original Brèche d'Alep marble top with an elegant mottled border.
