A very decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu and Baccarat crystal Présentoire. The centerpiece is raised by a solid Baccarat crystal base with ormolu trim. Above is a circular and finely chased ormolu base below the three supports that end with paw feet and are topped with finely chased ram heads, that are joined by a floral garland. Above is pierced ormolu gallery with floral accents and a wreath at each side. All below the fitted cut Baccarat crystal bowl with petal designed edge.
