A beautiful and extremely decorative French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated oak, giltwood, and Sarrancolin marble console. The wall mounted console is raised by an elegant single support with fine giltwood acanthus leaves below an impressive and intricately carved heart shaped foliate reserve with charming giltwood flowers. Two beautiful scrolled supports also adorned with striking acanthus leaves lead up to the exceptional and uniquely designed pierced apron with swaging drapes and giltwood flowers centering the superb richly carved seashell reserve with additional foliate giltwood accents. Above is the original thick Sarrancolin marble top with a fine mottled border.
