A high quality 19th century Imari centerpiece fitted in a French Louis XVI st. ormolu base. The centerpiece is raised by a square ormolu base with canted corners below a berried laurel wreath and a satin and burnish fluted central support. The Imari porcelain design of a central richly colored foliate in an urn amidst flowers with gilded accents. All within a finely chased pearled ormolu band flanked by two ormolu Greek key shaped handles decorated with a draped berried laurel band and rosettes. All original gilt.
