A striking Italian late 19th century Neo-Classical st. ebonized fruitwood, giltwood, and white Carrara marble center table. The circular table is raised by elegant bun feet below three most impressive scrolled legs with handsome claw and ball feet and stunning richly carved open winged swans with giltwood accents. The legs are connected by a triangular stretcher with a scalloped shaped border and a hole at the center. The apron displays a fine wrap around giltwood band while above is the original white Carrara marble top.
