A sensational mid 19th century Italian Louis XV st. marquetry center table. The table is raised by slender cabriole legs ending with ormolu sabots and having a top decorative ormolu mount. The scalloped shaped frieze in kingwood has a file of tulipwood following the contours of the frieze. The top has an exquisite and highly detailed inlaid marquetry with foliate border amidst birds and fish while the central panel has a central medallion with bouquets of flowers, scrolled acanthus leaves, snails and masculine masks
