An extremely elegant and high quality Italian 18th century Louis XVI st. walnut, giltwood and Benou Breccia marble center table. The rectangular center table is raised by fine circular tapered legs with most decorative topie shaped feet and beautiful fitted giltwood flutes with lovely foliate designs. Above each leg are richly carved giltwood block rosettes flanking the straight frieze. Each side displays a most elegant recessed panel framed within a giltwood border and showcasing the fine walnut grain. Above a fine mottled giltwood Coeur de Rai and interlocking band is the original thick Benou Breccia marble.
