An exceptional Italian early 19th century ebonized fruitwood, exotic wood and ormolu desk. The three drawer desk is raised by elegant square tapered legs with bun feet and finely inlaid foliate designs. Each leg is connected by a charming stretcher with a fine curved shape and additional lovely foliate inlays. The apron displays three drawers each decorated with richly chased keyhole escutcheons and stunning masterfully inlaid scrolled inlaid flowers and leaves also repeated at the back and each side. The top displays an exquisite array of beautiful luxuriant scrolled leaves amidst finely detailed flowers.
