A handsome and very detailed 19th century Louis XVI st. Chinese porcelain vase mounted into a lamp. The vase is raised by an impressive square ormolu base with finely chased satin cabochon shaped frieze with an exquisite flowerhead at each canted corner. Above is a large berried laurel wreath ormolu wreath. The vase has very detailed painted reserves of scenes and a floral theme on each side, with a very elaborate green and fold scrolled foliate designed background. Wonderful quality. White silk shades.
