A stunning 19th century Imari bowl set within an elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu base. This fine centerpiece is raised on four scrolled ormolu legs with a foliate pattern in a satin and burnished finish, centered by a smooth rosette. Each leg is joined by a richly chased swaging floral garland. At the base of the bowl is a floral ormolu band and a beaded border at the top. At each side is an impressive scrolled acanthus leaf ormolu handle. The Imari bowl displays a lovely Japanese scene amidst richly hued foliate and cherry blossoms, all with vivid colors throughout.
