A very impressive and richly carved Italian early 19th century Neo-Classical st. painted and giltwood console. The two supports rest on a faux marble slab. The square column supports have rouge patinated background with charming carved giltwood cherub heads on a circular back plate flanked by carved giltwood urns, doves, foliage sprays, and florettes. Above is the top with a green faux marble apron with giltwood molding. The top is a yellow with pink veining faux marble. Excellent condition.
