A magnificent mid 19th century Italian Empire st. mahogany and gilt four drawer chest. The chest is raised on a solid base below back straight legs and regal patinated and gilt griffin shaped supports in the front. The stunning serpentine shaped sides are decorated with gilt and patinated carvings of foliate and birds. The four wide drawers each have a brass keyhole escutcheon, with a stunning inverted butterfly mahogany demi lune insert on the two middle drawers. The bombe shaped frieze has molded top borders and a solid fine grain mahogany top. All rich and warm patina throughout.
