An elegant French 19th century Louis XVI st. mahogany, ormolu and brass armchair. The armchair is raised by fine circular tapered legs with lovely topie shaped ormolu sabots and fluted designs with most decorative fitted brass fillets. Each leg displays an elegant top cap below a lightly curved support and block reserves centering the apron decorated with a fine mottled ormolu band. The beautiful scrolled arms display a charming carved dolphin leading up to the horseshoe shaped back with a decorative recessed panel with a fine fitted brass border. Upholstered with black leather and finished brass nailheads.
