A stunning and extremely high quality Baltic 19th century Empire st. ormolu, patinated bronze and crystal chandelier. The two tiered eight arm twenty four light chandelier is centered by a beautiful bottom crystal ball with a lovely and uniquely cut design. A spectacular array of prism shaped crystals lead outwards in a most decorative stepped pattern affixed to exceptional circular ormolu supports. At the center is a remarkable wrap around patinated bronze band with superb pierced foliate ormolu mounts and rosettes below striking richly chased reserves of stunning scrolled foliate designs, palmettes and personages amidst scrolled movements. Elegantly curved cut crystal garlands lead to the second tier decorated in the same outstanding manner with eight beautiful scrolled fluted patinated bronze arms with exceptional ormolu acanthus leaf accents, circular bobeches, and foliate candle cups in a rich satin and burnished finish. Additional most decorative crystal garlands lead upwards to the majestic top crown with distinctive finely detailed leaves.
