A striking and most elegant Baltic 19th century Neo-Classical st. flamed Mahogany, ormolu, brass, and fossilized Soapstone commode. The two drawer chest is raised by square tapered legs with fine fluted designs, fitted brass fillets, and lovely mottled fitted ormolu sabots. Additional most decorative fluted designs with fitted brass fillets lead up each side flanking the two drawers each decorated with richly chased circular ormolu pulls and charming tied ribbon keyhole escutcheons set on the stunning butterfly veneered flamed Mahogany background. The sides also showcase the beautiful Mahogany wood grain while above is the superb original fossilized Soapstone top with cut corners and a fine mottled border.
