A stunning and extremely high quality Russian 19th century Neo-Classical st. ormolu, crystal, and smoked glass chandelier. The eight light chandelier is centered by a charming bottom acorn finial surrounded by lovely beaded crystal garlands. The ormolu rim is also decorated with additional beaded crystal garlands and displays exceptional richly chased foliate designs with striking palmettes and eight scrolled arms leading to floral bobeches and fluted candle cups. At the center is the magnificent and most impressive smoked glass ball set on elegantly curved supports and adorned with superb ormolu sprays with lovely crystal pendants. Four crystal and ormolu chains lead upwards to the majestic top crown with additional charming and most decorative crystal pendants and richly chased palettes.
