A beautiful Baltic early 19th century Neo-Classical st. ormolu chandelier. The six arm chandelier is centered by an elegant and unique bottom finial with finely etched wrap around bands below lovely richly chased scrolled foliate and palmette designs. The circular body displays a charming interlocking rosette band at the border and a most decorative curved central design with a lovely topie shaped finial. The six arms display a curved design adorned with a palmette leaf leading to circular mottled candle cups. Three elegant chains lead upwards to the fine top crown with a charming central floral design.
