A beautiful and most decorative complete set of English 19th century Chippendale st. patinated and giltwood dining chairs. Each charming is raised by beautiful uniquely scrolled front legs with carved foliate feet and striking floral corner mounts with lovely central lattice designed cabochons while the square back legs display a fine lightly curved design. The pierced back supports display beautiful interlocking scrolled foliate designs with richly carved floral gilt accents and a lovely central floral reserve. The armchairs each display most decorative scrolled arms while the seats each retain their original leather upholstery with an elegant gold tooled foliate central reserve. All original gilt and patina throughout.
