A striking and complete set of four Continental 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated wood and red leather armchairs. Each beautiful chair is raised by elegant circular tapered fluted legs with finely carved topie shaped feet. Above each leg are carved reserves and the lovely curved upholstered arms with most decorative scrolled designs. The wide seats and oval back supports are upholstered in their original red leather with brass nail heads. At the tops are charming carved floral reserves flanked by fine acorn finials. All original patina throughout.
