A stunning pair of French 19th century Louis XVI st. giltwood and leather benches. Each bench is raised by beautiful most decorative curved X shaped supports with scrolled feet, a superb central foliate rosette framed within a beaded band, and with richly carved berried laurel designs leading outwards.

The supports are connected by elegantly turned stretchers with fluted designs and fine central berried laurel bands. Above, the rectangular seats are upholstered in black leather with handsome French natural nails.

Seat Height: 19"
