A sensational and monumentally scaled complete set of four Italian 19th century Louis XVI st. Sienna and white Carrara marble architectural ionic columns. Each palatially scaled column is raised by a square Carrara marble base and circular socle support. Each fluted central support showcases a rich Sienna marble hue with remarkable veining. At the top of each column are the original white Carrara marble ionic capitals with signature scrolled volutes, egg and dart pattern and palmettes to each side.
