An exquisite and extremely decorative complete set of seven French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated wall panels. The set is comprised of three wider panels and four narrow panels each displaying a beautiful yellow background. The larger panels display wonderfully executed hand painted central oval medallions with lovely finely detailed scenes of beautiful maidens seated on rocks playing with charming winged cherubs framed within Coeur de Rai borders. Above is a tied ribbon amidst lovely intricately detailed swaging blooming flower garlands tied at most decorative rosettes with a graceful berried laurel wrap around garland at the border. The smaller panels display a beautiful finely detailed array of luxuriant interlocking foliate designs tied with charming ribbons and lovely blooming flowers. All original patina throughout.

Larger Panels: H: 74.5" L: 37" D: 1"

Smaller Panels: H: 75.75" L: 10.75" D: 1"
