An elegant and most decorative set of four French 19th century Louis XV st. patinated armchairs. Each chair is raised by lovely cabriole legs with fine scrolled feet attached by beautiful X shaped stretchers with mottled designs. Above each leg are richly carved foliate reserves while the scalloped shaped friezes are centered by charming finely detailed seashells amidst foliate movements. Each elegantly scrolled arm displays additional fine foliate carvings. The upholstered back supports are framed within fine patinated borders with most decorative scalloped shaped tops with lovely scrolled movements and striking seashell reserves amidst additional foliate movements. All original patina throughout.
Can be divided into two pair of armchairs.
