A stunning and complete set of six Italian 18th century Louis XVI period walnut and hand painted dinning chairs from Lucca. Each chair is raised by extremely elegant lightly curved square tapered legs with fine giltwood flutes at the front. Above each leg are charming block cabochons and giltwood bands which extend along each side and to the back. The striking pierced curved backs display lovely foliate giltwood movements with wonderfully executed hand painted panels depicting intricately detailed flowers framed within giltwood bands. All original gilt and patina throughout.
