A striking and extremely unique Continental 19th century Biedermeier period Walnut, ebonized fruitwood and giltwood commode. The three drawer chest is raised by elegant block feet with delicate ebonized Fruitwood fillets below the straight frieze and impressive columns at each side with striking giltwood plinths and capitals. The two bottom drawers are sans traverse (without crossbar) showcasing the cabinet maker's high skill set with the top drawer displaying a lovely curved design and each displaying fine family crest shaped ebonized Fruitwood keyhole escutcheons. The sides and most decorative uniquely designed top showcase the beautiful wood grain throughout.
