An attractive Continental 19th century Biedermeier st. Burl Birch and ebonized Fruitwood settee. The settee is raised by four square legs and bottom blocks with filets of ebonized Fruitwood. The legs lead to a secondary upper block and an elegant scrolled inlaid designs with outer ebonized filets. The scroll supports the armrest which leads to the beautiful Burl Birch arm which ends with a square block. The back is elegantly finished with the same cream ultra suede upholstery.
