An exceptional Continental 19th century Biedermeier st. burl walnut, Beechwood and brass electrified cabinet. The extremely decorative cabinet is raised by square tapered legs with brass sabots and fillets. The straight frieze displays a fine brass fillet below two doors. The doors display recessed panels with striking brass framing, rosettes and the original glass panes with beautiful mottled brass accents. The doors open to reveal three glass shelves and are centered by three elegant brass fitted flutes leading up each side. The top crown displays a central triangle brass fillet and an exceptional mottled design with brass accents.
