A handsome and most elegant Continental 19th century Biedermeier st. Walnut chest circa 1840. The three drawer chest is raised by elegant scrolled tapered feet below the straight apron. Each of the three drawers showcases the stunning butterfly veneered Walnut wood grain which extends across each drawer and is centered by charming finely inlaid keyhole escutcheons. Each side also displays a beautiful butterfly veneered design while the top displays four most decorative panels. All original warm and rich patina throughout.
