A sensational Continental 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu, Pietra Dura and mosaic side table. The table is raised by three fine topie shaped feet below a triangular base with concave sides, cut corners and a striking wrap around foliate band. The tripod shaped pedestal support displays stunning richly chased large acanthus leaves amidst lovely scrolled movements adorned with charming richly chased flowers and elegant swaging berried laurel garlands tied with a ribbon. The powerful circular top displays a most decorative central checker board design with a splendid array of alternating Black Belgian marble, Alabastro Fiorito, Rouge Griotte, Lapis Lazuli and Vert de Patricia marbles to name a few, framed within a Brocatelle d'Espagne marble border. At the outer border are groupings of three intricately inlaid mosaic medallions depicting wonderfully detailed Roman landmarks of the Pantheon, the Arch of Titus, Temple of Saturn, the Colosseum, the Temple of Vesta, and the Temple of Baalbec to also only name but a few, all set in a black Belgian marble plateau. All original gilt throughout.
