An impressive and large scaled Continental 19th century Renaissance st. composite stone and Wrought Iron well. The octagonal shaped well with its octagonal shaped base is decorated with mottled edges along the top and bottom. Each panel has highly detailed figures of lions and whimsical masculine figures, each of which are flanked by four sided scrolling crests. Atop the well is a two post Wrought Iron frame decorated with 'S' and 'C' scrolled decorations surrounding the central pillar which holds the patinated Iron bucket.
