A superb and very unique Continental 19th century Renaissance st. ebonized Fruitwood and giltwood pedestal column. The pedestal is raised by an elegant square base with cut corners, curved block feet, and richly carved arch shaped giltwood reserves of finely detailed acanthus leaves. The exceptional and most decorative central support displays a stunning spiral tapered design leading up to the circular mottled socle. The square top also displays fine cut corners and handsome richly carved lion heads amidst lovely foliate designs. Top Dimension: 13.75"
