A handsome and most decorative Continental early 19th century Biedermeier st. flamed Mahogany, Fruitwood, and ebonized Fruitwood tilt top center/dining table. The circular table is raised by a beautiful triangular base with fine feet, concave sides, and exceptional elegantly curved and scrolled supports leading to the hexagonal central support. The top tilts upon its original hardware and displays a beautiful sunburst veneered design showcasing the stunning wood grain centered by an inlaid Fruitwood and ebonized Fruitwood star.
