A large scaled Continental early 19th century oil on canvas of a landscape scene next to a river. A most decorative scene with two classically dressed maidens conversing on the side of a river amidst shrubs and some ruins. In the background, to the left are two men rowing a boat in front of a bridge leading to a town and a mountainous area to the right. All under a colorful sky. Wonderfully detailed with a colorful palette. An extremely decorative panel framed within a fluted green patinated frame.
