A handsome French 18th century Louis XVI period oak buffet. The two door, two drawer buffet is raised by elegant mottled feet below the most decorative scalloped shape frieze. The two central doors are decorated with fine recessed panels with a mottled border, iron keyhole escutcheons and separated by a richly carved charming sunflower circular central reserve. The doors open to reveal all the original hardware and shelves. Fine fluted designs flank the doors at each side and above with two drawers also decorated with a fine mottled design with iron diamond shaped keyhole escutcheons, circular iron pulls separated by a striking carved floral design. Each side also displays elegant mottled side panels while the top showcases the warm wood grain.
