An elegant country French 18th century walnut Vaissellier. The buffet is raised on richly carved cabriole legs, and a finely carved apron with a design of a central urn with scrolled branches, leaves and flowers. Above are two doors with a moulded border frame and a central burl walnut panel. Above are two drawers with an inlaid design. The hutch has three shelves to display china with a scalloped design at the front of each shelf. All original pewter hardware. All original rich patina throughout.
