A beautiful Country French 19th century Louis XVI st. oak and Coquillier de Bilbao marble buffet. The four door two drawer honey colored buffet is raised by elegantly curved supports below the straight frieze. At the center are two impressive doors with the most decorative arched designs, striking mottled recessed panels, and pierced pewter keyhole escutcheons with two smaller doors at each side which all open to reveal all original hardware and a single shelf. At each top corner is a charming drawer with a fine mottled circular pull while each side also displays a mottled recessed panel showcasing the warm wood grain. Above is the original Coquillier de Bilbao marble top with a lovely mottled border.
