A lovely Country French 19th century Louis XVI st. patinated desk. The desk is raised by elegant circular tapered fluted legs with fine topie shaped feet and richly carved acanthus leaves. Above each leg are beautiful carved block rosettes which flank the three drawers at the center of the straight frieze.

Each drawer displays an iron keyhole escutcheon and pull which are decorated with recessed panels framed within carved beaded bands. The top displays a wonderfully executed hand painted finish with a central face and sun within fine foliate patterns. All original patina throughout.
