A wonderful and most decorative Dutch late 19th century Louis XVI st. ormolu chandelier. The five arm chandelier is centered by a fine bottom reeded finial and striking ball reserve with intricately detailed etched scrolled foliate designs with a central wrap around beaded band. Each elegantly scrolled arm displays lovely acorn finials and is adorned with large acanthus leaves leading to reeded bobeches and baluster shaped mottled foliate candle cups. The central fut displays a beautiful and most decorative array of reeded, foliate, and scrolled movements leading up to the mottled circular top crown.
