A beautiful and most elegant French 18th century Louis XV Period tulipwood and ormolu side /writing table. The table is raised by slender cabriole legs with fine acanthus leaf wrap around ormolu sabots. The legs are joined by a bottom curved tier within an ormolu gallery. At the frieze is one drawer at the right side with all original hardware and a fitted inkwell and ponce pot. At the center is a pull out writing surface with an ormolu pull and fitted green gold tooled leather. All below the oval top displaying the beautiful wood grain fitted within an ormolu wrap around gallery.
