An elegant country French 18th century Louis XV period Walnut and brass buffet. The two door three drawer buffet is raised by fine scrolled legs below the most decorative scalloped frieze with a delicate mottled border and lovely central basket with blooming flowers and scrolled branches. The doors each display impressive scrolled recessed mottled designs with charming richly carved flowers and striking scrolled brass keyhole escutcheon and decorative plates separated by additional charming floral designs with the doors opening to reveal one shelf and original hardware. Above a recessed arched design with a delicate floral pattern are the three drawers each decorated with beautiful brass pierced pulls and a diamond shaped keyhole escutcheon separated by carved diamond shaped reserves with unique woven like designs. The sides display a decorative recessed panel while the top displays a lovely design each showcasing the beautiful warm wood grain. All original patina throughout.
