A most elegant French 18th century Louis XV period Walnut and bronze commode. The four drawer Bordelaise chest is raised by cabriole legs with fine scrolled feet with a carved fillet extending along the most decorative scalloped frieze. Superb scrolled curvaceous designs lead up each side flanking the drawers with each displaying a beautiful bombee shape and decorated with richly chased pierced foliate bronze keyhole escutcheons and pulls framed within a delicate carved wrap around fillet. The sides display beautiful recessed panels with delicate wrap around borders while the top showcases the superb Walnut wood grain. All original rich patina throughout.
