A most handsome French 18th century Louis XV period walnut petite commode Bordelaise. The chest is raised by elegant cabriole legs with carved hoof feet. Above the fine scalloped shaped frieze are three drawers. Each with a lovely bombee shape, their original bronze keyhole escutcheons and richly chased circular foliate pulls, framed within a mottled border. The sides also display superb curved shapes and a recessed panel with a mottled border. The top follows the contours of the chest with a mottled edge. All beautiful warm walnut grain and patina throughout.
