A beautiful and unique French 18th century Louis XVI period giltwood and Brèche d'Alep marble console. The freestanding console is raised by handsome and most decorative paw feet below fine block reserves with foliate carvings and circular tapered fluted legs. Each leg is connected by an elegantly curved stretcher with a lovely foliate border and a striking central urn with a beautiful wrap around interlocking band with ring handles at each side and an acorn finial above. Above each leg are richly carved lion heads set within a block reserve and flanking the fluted and beaded frieze. Above is the original Brèche d'Alep marble top with a fine mottled border. All original gilt throughout.
