An elegant and very high quality French 18th century Louis XVI period Mahogany and ormolu side table/desk. The two drawer rectangular table with a pull out is raised by slender circular tapered fluted legs with their original ormolu casters. The straight apron displays a recessed design and a pullout at the front with ormolu pulls and its original gold tooled leather writing surface and with a drawer at each side decorated with fine ormolu keyhole escutcheons. Above is the French polished top showcasing the beautiful Mahogany wood grain framed within a striking richly chased mottled wrap around foliate ormolu band in a superb satin and burnished finish.
