A most elegant French 18th century Louis XVI period Mahogany, ormolu, and white Carrara marble console. The one drawer dessert console is raised by lovely circular tapered legs with fine fitted mottled ormolu sabots. The legs display a unique and most decorative baluster shape with beautiful fluted designs and are each connected by a mottled tier with a mottled ormolu band at the front and an elegant most decorative pierced gallery. Above each leg is a fitted fluted ormolu reserve flanking the central drawer decorated with a lovely wrap around ormolu fillet and displaying ormolu pulls, keyhole escutcheon, and curved sides. Above is the original fitted white Carrara marble top framed within an exquisite ormolu gallery with pierced baluster shaped designs.
