A handsome French 18th century Louis XVI Period Walnut and Brass buffet. The buffet is raised by four supports below a straight mottled frieze. The two impressive doors are decorated with Brass keyhole escutcheons and richly carved recessed panels. Each door which is carved on the inside opens to reveal all the original hardware and one shelf. At the top are two drawers, one displaying a Brass keyhole escutcheon while the other a Brass pull. Each side is also decorated with carved panels. All original warm walnut grain and patina throughout.
