A stunning French 18th century Provincial Regence period giltwood mirror. The mirror retains its original beveled mirror plate set within a fine wrap around mottled border with the wonderfully executed bevel following the shape of the frame. At the base are beautiful acanthus leaf feet with most decorative Greek keys and a central seashell reserve. Charming laurel branches are seemingly growing up each side interlocking into fine mottled architectural bands. The impressive top crown is centered by a striking reeded urn with additional laurel branches at each side and lovely richly carved blooming flowers. All original gilt throughout.
